

Gulf Daily News \(Dimanche 30 mars 2008\)

MANAMA: A high-profile recognition ceremony was held for 2006/07 Bahrain Sophia Antipolis Mentorship Programme.

The event was held at the Ritz-Carlton Bahrain, Hotel and Spa

"With initiatives such as the launch of the Bahrain Sophia Antipolis Mentorship Programme, Kuwait Finance House-Bahrain is able to make an effective and resounding impact, equipping ambitious young Bahraini students with the best of skills and offering them the broadest of opportunities to excel," KFH-Bahrain chief executive officer and managing director Abdulhakeem Alkhayyat said in his address.

The ceremony was attended by more than 200 including VIPs, senior government officials, high dignitaries and parents of the graduates.

"We are proud to be a partner in this endeavour. We want to actively participate in developing new Bahraini leaders, who can take on the responsibilities of the future," said Mr Alkhayyat.

"The Bahrain Sophia Antipolis Mentorship Programme provides motivated young Bahrainis with further training in the vital skills they will need to succeed in the workplace and to achieve their personal development goals.

"We are more than happy to provide mentorship and support to a programme that is very well aligned with our corporate objectives of developing the nation's youth.

"I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to the Young Arab Leaders and InJAZ Bahrain for their major contribution in this programme and also congratulate the students for their achievements and wish them all the success in their future," he said.